Tate That!

The Tate contract comprises of Tate Modern, Tate Britain and now includes Tate Liverpool. KGB have been cleaning the Tate Galleries for over 7 years and have provided a host of services including portering, waste management and contract cleaning.

KGB Cleaning & Support Services Ltd have yet again retained an exclusive contract. The Tate Galleries after an extensive and competitive tender process have chosen KGB to continue to offer it's cleaning & support services.

Tony O'Shea, Operations Director-KGB commented that it again demonstrated the capability, resourcefulness, and value for money services being offered by KGB even in these difficult times.

It was a long and competitive tender process and our competitors pushed very hard, however due to the nature of our dynamic service offering aligned with the full understanding our clients needs we were able to produce a cost effective solution which met and exceeded the clients expectations.

KGB Cleaning & Support Services has been providing cleaning and associated services for more than 17 years within the commercial, public, local government and educational sectors. With turnover exceeding £20M and more than 2,500 employees, KGB is a recognisable provider for competitive and quality driven cleaning services.

KGB has built a reputation around 'knowing what the client wants' and continually delivering service excellence. This is aligned to our core values and team ethos which has been instrumental in the securing and ongoing retention of many high profile buildings within the UK.

Delivering excellent cleaning services across different sectors requires a high level of personal attention which is at the forefront of all KGB's management, support staff and most importantly our site cleaning teams. With the benefit of a flat management structure, our clients are assured that we do not operate a bureaucratic, and costly, infrastructure when the focus should be aimed at each individual contract by continually improving the service and cost!

KGB has recognised that the cleaning industry has undergone significant changes in recent years from legislation to environmental ownership. Also, we recognise that paying slighter better pay rates can have a significant impact on the retention of staff and therefore an overall improvement to our service. As a privately owned business, KGB has the ability to manoeuvre its service offering to suit each client and is proud to be known as a major independent
